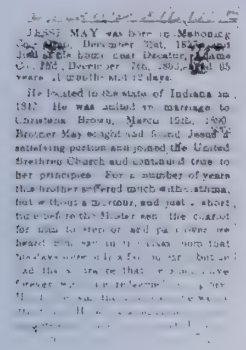
ancestry

Jessie May Obit



JESSE MAY was born in Mahoning Co., Ohio, December 31st, 1827, and died at his home near Decatur, Adams Co., Ind., December 17th, 1893, aged 65 years, 11 months and 12 days.

He located in the state of Indiana in 1847. He was united in marriage to Christena Brown, March 19th, 1890. Brother May sought and found Jesus a satisfying portion and joined the United Brethren Church and continued true to her principles. For a number of years this brother suffered much with asthma, but without a murmur, and just a short

Just a short time before the Master sent the chariot for him to stop on and cross over we heard him say in the class room that his days on earth were few but he had the assurance that he should live forever with the redeemed in glory. His home was the home of the weary itinerim. He was a kind father, a loving husband, and respected by all. The rest is unreadable.

Monroeville Weekly Breeze 1/25/1894

Closed His Labors

At the country residence two miles northwest of town, in this township, occurred the death of Michael Barrone of old age, on Sunday last, January 21, 1894. The deceased was born in Sumerset county, Pennsylvania, June 25, 1821. Thus making his age at the time of his death 72 years, 6 months and 27 days.

He was among the early settlers of this part of Indiana, having emigrated from Pennsylvania to Adams county Ind. 1841, landing at his destination or selected spot on January 17th. Shortly after his arrival in Indiana he became acquainted with Polley Brown and on March 30, 1847 they were united in marriage. This union proved to be a happy one and the two have pleasantly lived together from the marriage date up to the date when the husband was seperated by deaths summons, a period of nearly fourty seven years. The trails of this union were born eleven children, eight boys and three girls; of which two boys and one girl preceded their parents to the world beyond. The surviving aged companion and children were at the bedside of the aged father when he breathed his last and followed the remains to their last resting place. Besides the children of the family there are thirty three grandchildren and one great-grand child.

The deceased was one of the early settlers of Monroe township and witnessed the dense wilderness of pioneer days yield to the woodsmans ax and the clearing up of the now fine and well cultivated farms. He settled with his wife on the tract of land where he died in November 1850 and has resided there ever since.

When the late rebellion broke out he left his home and family and went out in defense of his country. In this cause he served until the close and came home suffering with disease caused from the hardships and privations through which the soldier boys were compelled to endure. In later years his complaint grew more severe and continued until about four years ago when he lost his eyesight, and has since that time up to the time of his death been entirely blind. He was a member of the G.A.R. Post of this place under whose care the funeral was conducted Tuesday last from the late residence.

The services were held at the M.E. Church, Rev. Kain of the Lutheran church officiating, who delivered a very impressive and appropriate sermon on the occassion. At the close of the sermon the remains were followed to the I.O.O.F. cemetery where after the G.A.R. post performed their last token of respect over the body of their departed comrade, all that remained was consigned to the tomb.

In the death of Michael Barrone, we are informed by W. T. Wilson, who has been a life long acquaintence of the deceased, that the last family chain has been broken, of among all the great settlers of this township.

My notes on the research of Floyd Brown

Floyd Brown lived in California and my contact with him was only by mail. He sent me his books and have tried to work from those. I believe he made a trip to PA for part of his research but I am not positive. So I cannot be sure that he is correct in all that he assumes here in his book. He has a lot of references, but I had not seen any of the source papers. With the name Brown it is more difficult as there were so many around.

What I know for sure is that the Henry A. Brown who is my great great grandfather and is buried at Monroeville in the Brown Cemetery is our line. He married Mary Hoffman in PA. His son John H. Brown is my great grandfather: John's son Joseph Newton Brown is my grandfather and of course, Guy Brown is my father.

It has been left up to Floyd to work on the line further back. While I come from John H. Brown, Floyd comes from a brother, Alexander Franklin Brown, both sons of Henry and Mary. So that is our connection.

So if he is correct the rest of the way back, then this information that I have on Alexander Brown, Sr. is probably correct. I will try to trace more but without more papers and documents I cannot prove it for sure. Floyd says then that Henry Brown was the son of Alexander Brown, Jr. and possibly the only child. Alexander Jr. being the son of Alexander Sr., who was the son of William Brown.

And we can easily trace Henry Brown back to Somerset Co., PA, where he married Mary Hoffman. So the burden of proof is back in Pennsylvania in the counties we have listed.

Just wanted everyone to know that this family genealogy is not set in stone. But if the references that Floyd gives can be found and read, then it may be, as I believe he did a thorough job.

The following papers are on Alexander's Revolutionary War service. There are more than one Alexander Brown with papers in the U.S. War Archives. There is one packet of 23 pages for Alexander Brown, and I noted that there were 3 different Alexanders listed there. I have pulled all from there that seems to pertain to the Alexander that we are interested in. The fact that they seem to fit our Alexander is good, but if Floyd took all of his information from the Pension papers then they would naturally match. So we need to know a little more about what other items he found elsewhere so they can be matched. For instance, his death has been given in the pension papers, as well as his wife's name and a son William at the age of 14. So these things if only found in the pension papers are not then proven to be our Alexander. If he found them in other resources like a marriage or birth and they matched then that would be more proof that it is all correct. However, he lists the DAR papers and the pension papers as his proof. So until we find other resources that match, like a will naming the children, or vital records of the family we cannot say it is a positive match. Circumstantial evidence says that it probably is.

If he is correct — will mark the census he says are our line

SOMERSET COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
WILLBOOK INDEX
1795-1900

FOREWARD

The alphabetized lists within this volume contain the names of those estates probated within the boundaries of Somerset County from its original formation in 1795 up to and including 1900.

The names and dates of the decedents were copied, not from the original courthouse indices, but from microfilmed copies in the possession of the Historical Society of Somerset County. Many times, the films were barely legible; therefore, some data may inadvertently be in error. For the most part, names and dates are as correct as is humanly possible.

An explanation of the "file" column may be necessary for this volume. Somerset's wills are classified by year, beginning with 1795. Each packet within that year is numbered chronologically by date of death; i.e., "file #1 of 1795 is the infamous Herman HUSBAND, listed on page 28 as "HUSBAND, Herman - 1 - 1795".

The staff of the Historical Society in Somerset was extremly kind and patient. They suggest that anyone wishing information on an ancestor listed in this book contact that society before writing directly to the courthouse, as the Register of Wills Officer refers most genealogical queries to the society anyway. Of course, a large SASE is always appreciated.

We are hopeful that this compilation will prove quite useful to those persons with Somerset County heritage or interest.

BROWN TIMELINE

1720	Birth of William Brown in Ireland
	Marriage of William and Elizabeth (no maiden name known) She born 1725 and may have died before 1810. Probably married in Ireland.
	Birth of William Jr. probably in Ireland
	Birth of Benjamin probably in Ireland
1759	Birth of Alexander in Londonderry, Ireland `
	Birth of Anna, daughter of William, Ireland
1761	Ayr/Air township formed in Bedford County (later in Fulton County)
1766	Application for land at Friend's Cove #1970 for 200 acres on the stream easterly by the land of Robert Moore's land and on the west by the land of Jacob Rhoades. November 25, 1766
1767	Dublin township formed in Bedford County (later in Fulton County)
1767	Bedford township formed in Bedford County and still in Bedford County.
1771	Brother's Valley township formed in Bedford County (later in Somerset County)
1772	Indenture of son Alexander and daughter Anna to Robert Wallace of Lancaster. Alexander for 5 years and Anna for 3 years. If the age of birth is correct, Aleander would be 13 years old. We do not know the age of Anna.
1773	Turkeyfoot township formed in Bedford County (taken from Brother's Valley and now in Somerset County)
1773	William, Tax in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA, as a renter
1774	William, Tax in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA, as a renter
1774	*Benjamin Brown on Tax list in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA
1775	Frankstown township formed in Bedford County (later in Blair County)
1775	*(I found William Brown on a tax list of Dublin Twp, owing 0: 1: 6)
1776	William, Tax in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA, as a renter
1776	*A printed list of those on the tax list in 1776 from Dublin township shows a William Brown and a Benjamin Brown. No tax listed; only the names.
1776	Alexander Brown joined the militia, and was in Valley Forge with George Washington. If so he left his indenture before the time was up.
1778	Alexander found in tax records on Clearfield Creek, but as a non-resident. Was he away in the military?
1779	William, Tax in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA *(I also found a William in Dublin Twp., on a 1779 tax list with a tax of 6-2-0)
1779	*Benjamin Brown on tax list for Dublin, Bedford, PA
1779	*Septennial Census, residence, Benjamin Brown, Dublin, Bedford, PA
1779	*Henry Brown, residence place, Turkeyfoot, Bedford, PA (not Henry A.)
1779	*Alexander Brown in Septennial Census showing residence at Peters, Franklin, PA
1779	Alexander Brown Sr. married "Jane" in Chambersburg, PA
1779	Permelia, eldest daughter of Alexander born about this date
1780	Huntingdon and Shirley townships formed (later in Huntingdon County)
1780	Alexander Brown, Jr. born to Alexander and Jane (approximate birth)
1780	William, Tax in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA
1781	*William, Tax in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA (I found this one and it probably encompassed both 1780-81)

1781	William, tax in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA. Looks like he owes 0-1-5 1/2)
1781	William, tax in Shirley, Bedford Co., PA. Looks like tax might be 0-4-2 It might be possible that William Brown, Jr. also has property on which he is to pay taxes, but it shows nothing but the name, the place, and the amount of taxes due.
1781	Benjamin Brown on tax list in Shirley, Bedford, PA
1781	Benjamin Brown on tax list in Shirley, Bedford, PA (these may be identical)
1781	2 John Browns found in Air, Bedford, PA
1781	2 Henry Browns in Frankstown, Bedford, PA
80's	Children born to Alexander and Jane: Anna, John, Lucy, James
1782	William was paid to get supplies to the army on the frontier. He did this by wagons and had to go over mountains to get to some of them. He hired 55 pack horses and 10 drivers to accomplish this and was to be at the town of Northumberland October 4th, 1782. Called William Brown, Esquire, in this item. Esquire can just mean land owner.
1782	William Brown on tax list in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA, tax 0-4-0
1782	One William on tax list for Shirley Twp., Bedford Co., PA, tax 0-12-0/ We also find Benjamin Brown and James Brown on this same list at tax of 0-5-0.
1782	Benjamin Brown on tax list for Shirley Twp., Bedford Co., PA
1782	3 John Browns in Frankstown, Bedford, PA
1782	 2 Henry Browns in Frankstown, Bedford, PA
1783	Benjamin Brown on tax list for Shirley Twp., Bedford Co., PA
1783	Benjamin Brown also on tax list for Air/Dublin, Bedford Co., PA
1783	2 John Browns in Frankstown, Bedford, PA
1784	Land applications for the Browns at Clearfield Creek. Probably 400 acres each. Later to become Cambria County. On both sides of the creek. #84 for Alexander; #80 for James Brown; #81 for Mary Brown, Sr; #89 for Wm Brown, Jr; #88 for Elizabeth Brown; #90 for John Brown; #98 for Thomas Brown all on Clearfield Creek. July 1, 1784
1784	Thomas Brown, son, received #98 warrant for land, but now it is said to be in Brother's Valley. Which is later Somerset County.
1784	John Brown, son, applied for #77 for land at Brother's Valley, Bedford Co., later to become Somerset County.
1785	Woodbury township formed in Bedford County (later part in Bedford and part in Blair)
1785	Tax list for Alexander Brown in Air and Dublin Twp., Bedford, Co., PA, tax 0-10. we find on this same list, an Emmory Brown with the same tax 0-10. We find on this same page, though designated as Brother's Valley, Thomas Brown with a tax of 19-10. There is also a Jacob Rhoades who may have been a neighbor in the earlier years. Also Joseph Bell who is the probably owner of the land that is rented by Alexander. There is one more on which I can find no date but shows that Alexander was renting from Joseph Bell. Alexander was the occupant; Joseph Bell was the owner: the place was Dublin, Bedford Co., PA; Value of tract was 20; tax to be paid was 3 cents and 8 ??. The 3 is under the cents column and not the dollar column. So again this shows that this Alexander was renting this property from Joseph Bell.

1785	Benjamin Brown on tax list for Shirley Twp., Bedford Co., PA
1785	1 John Brown in Frankstown, Bedford, PA
1785	Thomas Brown was listed as living at Brother's Valley which was in Bedford County, but ended up being in Somerset County, PA
1786	Benjamin Brown on tax list for Shirley Twp., Bedford Co., PA
1786	Benjamin Brown on tax list for Shirley, Bedford, PA (duplicate? or different Ben)
1786	John Brown, poss. bro., on Septennial residence, Shirley, Bedford, PA
1786	On Septennial census, residence, Benjamin Brown, Shirley, Bedford, PA
1786	On Septennial listing of residences: Alexander Brown: Peters, Franklin, PA.
1786	3 John Browns in Shirley Twp., Bedford, PA
1786	Henry Brown, residence place, Turkeyfoot, Bedford, PA (not Henry A.)
1786	Henry Brown, residence place, Woodbury, Bedford, PA
1787	Benjamin Brown on tax list for Shirley, Bedford, PA
1787	1 John Brown in Frankstown, Bedford, PA
1788	Alexander Brown found on the tax list of Frankstown, Huntingdon Co., PA and we also find a Thomas Brown on the same list.
1789	Alexander Brown found on the Frankstown, Huntingdon Co., PA tax list. This one says 445 and adj. to Thomas Brown which says 517 on Clearfield Creek. (Acres) note the one in 1798 which gives the same amount of acres.
1789	Son Henry found on Military roll in Woodbury township, Bedford Co., PA
1790	Floyd Brown believes William Brown, Sr. died before this date. Possibly because he could not find a census report for him in 1790. (I could not find him on this census year either. There was one William in Huntingdon County, but the age was incorrect. If it were William Jr., the names of the parents were not given as our William)
1790	Alexander Brown Sr. on census in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA. 2 males, 2 females
1790	Alexander also found at Peters, Franklin with 3 white males all born before 1774. Might this be a place of business?
1790	Benjamin found in Huntingdon Co., PA, 5 males, 5 females
1790	Henry Brown on federal census in Bedford Co.,PA
1798	Alexander Brown on the direct tax list of Dublin, Bedford Co., PA. It appears that he is a renter on the property of Joseph Bell. His number (acres or value) is 20 and his tax is 3-8. Joseph Bell's property value or acres is 900 and he appears to have many people on his land.
1798	Alexander Brown listed as living in Bedford, Dublin Twp in the Direct tax list. He has a log dwelling 14 x 16 with a value of $5. He appears to be renting this place as it has a different owner.
1798	There is also an Alexander Brown in Allegheny, Huntingdon and Somerset as follows: He owns 445 acres; the land is next to Thomas Brown's and Thomas has 517 acres. Beside them is Nancy Page/Bage 240 acres, and Elizabeth Brown with 392 acres and they all have property on Clearfield Creek. This appears to be the same land that was listed in 1789 above.
1798	Oct 1, 1798 we find also Alexander Brown in Peters, Franklin County, PA. He has a log house and a stable on the property of Richard Bard. Alexander named as the occupant and Richard Bard as the owner. 120 acres adjoining Robert John's 360 acres.

1798	*John Brown, poss. bro., listed in Bedford Co., PA Direct tax list
1798	*John Brown, poss. bro., listed in Woodbury Twp., Bedford Co., PA
1798	*Many John Browns in Huntingdon and Somerset counties.
1798	*3 Henry Browns listed in Woodbury.
1800	Alexander Brown Sr., on census in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA; 5 males, 3 females; head of house born before 1755.
1800	*A list of the taxable inhabitants of Dublin Township. Included on this list is Alexander Brown. No other information given.
1800	*Benjamin Brown, census, Springfield Twp., Huntingdon Co., PA
1800	Henry Brown on federal census in Woodbury, Bedford Co., PA "Henry Brown lives near Keagy's Mill, Woodbury township. His sons went west early except for Jacob, who left in 1845."
1800	*Benjamin Brown, census, Somerset, Somerset, PA, 2 males, 4 females, head and wife both born between 1756-1774.
1800	*John Brown, poss. bro., Woodbury, Bedford, PA
1800	*Henry Brown, residence place, Woodbury, Bedford, PA.
1804	Alexander Brown Sr. on tax list residence in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA
1804	Possible date of marriage of Alexander Brown Jr.
1805	Birth of Henry A. Brown, son of Alexander Brown Jr.
1806	Birth of William Brown, son of Alexander Brown Sr. & Jane
1808	Alexander Brown Sr., on tax list residence in Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA
1810	Alexander Brown Sr., on census of Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA (Floyd's)
1810	*Census of Dublin, Bedford, PA .....Alexander Brown Sr. 4 males and Alex - 3 females and wife. Total 9 in household. Alexander and wife born before 1765.
1810	*Census of Peters, Franklin, PA ..... Alexander (poss Jr.) There is nothing on this image to give us any clues. Only a total of 3 persons. No genders, no ages. Might he have been working at his father's mason business?
1814	Alexander Brown Sr., tax list, residence, Dublin Twp., Bedford Co., PA , age 55, occupation, Mason. Birthday then about 1759. (later to become Fulton County)
1820	Alexander Brown Sr., census in Peters Twp., Franklin Co., PA (I question this)
1820	Alexander Brown census in Peters Twp., Franklin Co., PA. In this home we have 2 families, one white and one colored. The white family has husband, wife and child. The colored family also has husband, wife and child. My question concerned the age of Alexander, head of the house. He is listed between 1774-1794 and has a son born between 1800-1810. Floyd interpreted this as Alexander, Sr. who also had a son in that time period. However, the age of both Alexander and his wife are too young to be Alexander, Sr. This fits Alexander, Jr. exactly and his son, Henry A. Brown. The thing that becomes confusing is that Alexander Sr. was given this address in his pension files as his home. Note below.
1820	There is one other Alexander Brown in Franklin Co. in Guilford Twp. This one would be the age of Alexander, Jr. However he has a family of 6 children. As far as we know Alexander, Jr. did not have any other children except for Henry A.
1820	Census of Guilford, Franklin Co., PA also has a Henry Brown family listed.

	However it seems that the father may be dead as for the males we have only 3 listed and they are all under the age of 10 years. The rest of the family seems to be females.
1820	Just one other Alexander in Cambria Co., PA but his age was too yount to be either of our Alexanders. He has 2 small bys under 10 and a girl. He may be a son of one of the other brothers?
1819	Pension file of Alexander Brown Sr. Alexander is asking for a pension because he was wounded and is now unable to carry on his trade of masonry because he is so crippled. His judge was Archibald Bard, and we find many of the Bards as the neighbors of Alexander Brown in the tax lists. He gives his age as 61 years, his wife as Jane, his work as a mason. He still had a son at home by the name of William who was 14. He had been wounded at Brandywine. Had served for about 4 years. And his adress was Peters Township, Franklin Co., PA.
1821	*One Benjamin Brown found in Henderson, Huntingdon, PA
1823	Reported death of Alexander Brown, Sr., son of William in Peters township, Franklin County, PA Died July 1, 1823. Letter of administration, Oct 15, 1823. Inventory Nov 13, 1823. Administrator James McDowell. Estate #1995.
1830	Census of Peters, Franklin Co., PA. The image for this one is blank. Just says Alexander Brown and then empty boxes.
1830	Census for Henry A. Brown, Jenner Twp., Somerset, PA, Henry and Mary and eldest daughter, Polly.
1830	Census Henry Brown, Woodbury, Bedford, PA, 5 persons, one male 60-69 born between 1761-1770.

Townships and counties formed and changed over the years.
The following are those that were originally in Bedford County, and changed later.
1761 Ayr/Air township formed: now in Fulton County.
1767 Dublin township formed; bounded by Ayr and Fannet; now in Fulton County.
1767 Bedford township, still in Bedford County
1771 Brother's Valley township formed; now in Somerset County
1773 Turkeyfoot formed taken from Brother's Valley; now in Somerset County.
1775 Frankstown formed; possible now in Blair County.
1780 Huntingdon and Shirley townships; now in Huntingdon County.
1785 Woodbury township formed; now part of Bedford and Clair counties.

This can explain the different places we find these Brown families and often they had not moved at all. Just the place names changed. It is hard though to reconcile the land warrents in Clearfield Creek and what may have happened to the land there, especially for Alexander Brown. With 400 acres on Clearfield Creek, how did he end up destitute as he seemed to be in his 1820 pension.

DUBLIN, the second oldest township in fulton county. Organized in 1767 , Dublin is, next to Ayr, the oldest township in Fulton county. It was created a township of Cumberland county at the October sessions of court, 1767. Its boundaries are thus indefinitely described. "Dublin bounded by Air and Fannet on the one side, and Colraine and Barre townships on the top of Sidling Hill, on the other side. John Ramsey was the constable.

At the time Bedford County was formed the bounds of Dublin township were left "as fixed by the Cumberland county court." On the assessment list for 1767, among the taxables of Dublin township, appear the names of the following persons, who probably resided within the the present limits of Fulton county.

Clearfield Creek is a 73.4 mile long tributary of the West Branch of the Susquehanna River in Cambria and Clearfield counties, PA. Clearfield Creek joins the West Branch of the Susquehanna River near the community of Clearfield.

All the Alexander Brown items I could find.

Date	Type of Record	Place	Names
1751	Tax record	Peters, Franklin, PA	Alexander Brown May have the date wrong on this, as it was listed as "nego"

1798	Tax list, 445 & 517 acres	Allegheny, Huntingdon, Clearfield Creek	Alexander & Thomas, Elizabeth Brown and Nancy R.
1798, October 1	Tax list	Peters, Franklin, PA	Alexander

Alexander is renting from Richard Bard, has log cabin and stable next to Robert Johnstone. Another image of this shows nothing after the name of Alexander. Probably the same but is arranged differently. Appears from another that Alexander had 120 acres here and the valuation is 360. Small compared to most of them living around him.

1819	Pension application	Peters, Franklin, PA	Alexander, b. 1759, wife Jane, Son Wm.
1820	Census	Jackson, Cambria	Alexander too young for either Jr. or Sr. 2 boys, 3 girls
1820	Census	Conemaugh, Cambria	Alexander
1820	Census	Peters, Franklin, PA	Alexander

This 1820 census shows Alexander and wife, and son along with a colored family, man, woman, and son all about the same age as Alexander and his family. All adults in the 1776-1794 age bracket and the boys both in the 1800-1810 age bracket. These are free-colored and not slaves. Floyd has this as Alexander, Sr., but age seems incorrect for that. If Sr. the son would be William; if Jr. the son would be Henry A. Brown

1820	Census	Guilford, Franklin	Alexander, and wife 1776-1794, 5 boys, 1 girl
1821	Resident list	Peters, Franklin, PA	Alexander
1823	Death of Alexander, Sr	Peters, Franklin, PA	Alexander, Rev. War soldier
1828	Resident entry	Peters, Franklin, PA	Alexander Brown, 1 man, poss. Negro on list.
1830	Census	Peters, Franklin, PA	Alexander, but no ages or genders on image.
1830	Census	Greene, Franklin	Alexander 1781-90, 5 males, 1 female & wife
1830	Census	Jenner, Somerset	Henry A. Brown

1842	Tax list	Greene, Franklin	Alexander, laborer

I redid my Alexander list as I had missed a few on the previous one. It looks like William is pretty well set as living in Dublin and staying there. I will let you come to your own conclusions rather than suggest anything and perhaps you have or will find more than I have. Tax lists are good but were the people really living there? Or did they just owe taxes on those places? Guess we still need probate or actual land records that might tell us more. But maybe something exciting will pop up into your brain that missed mine completely!!

(Am not sure then what this last paragraph means or if I have the whole document that was written above. But I would assume that Daniel and Charles knew Alexander and knew that he was a solder and so were his witnesses to that fact. And perhaps this Burkey was also a witness but sent his statement by deposition and did not appear before the court judges. Most pension files have testimonies of witnesses who verify that this person was indeed a solder.)

I don't know what this document is and what it means. I note that the names of those who made inquiries about Alexander Brown have their names on this document. I don't understand what is INVALID. Since Alexander put in his own statement, and had his witnesses confirm that he was indeed a soldier, I don't know what the invalid means. Did it mean that after all of that he was considered to not be poor enough to receive this pension? Was this an extra pension on top of his other one that he was going after and he did not qualify? This act of provision was passed in 1818 or did his death in 1823 have anything to do with it. You need someone to explain what this means. Whether or not he got his pension with this Act of 1818 doesn't change the fact that he was in the war for 4 years and was at Valley Forge with Washington.

Does it mean he WAS AN INVALID?
Sick — ill?

Part 1 of the tax list for Air and Dublin townships in Bedford County, Pennsylvania

Part 2 is below where we find Alexander Brown on the property of Joseph Bell

The tract of land Alexander is on is in Dublin Township and it is valued at 20

Assessment is 0-3-8 It looks like the first column is dollars; 2nd cents; and I can't figure out the third.

From this it appears that the man who owns the land that Alexander is on at this time is Joseph Bell.

On one of these assessments there seems to have been a log cabin in which they were living. I do not have a date on this tax list. But note that Joseph Bell is also on the 1785 tax list.

On the inscription list of Henry's son Jacob, we find the father's name listed as Henry David Sr. so not quite sure if this is an error or what. Being from Germany it isn't unusual to have 4 or 5 names in your name. Note that the son was called Henry David

Alexander Brown Residence year 1800

Residence Place: Dublin, Bedford, Pennsylvania

Person Note for William Brown

William Brown had 200 acres in Friends Cove on the stream bounded easterly by Robert Moore's land and on the west by Jacob Roads. November 25, 1766. Application #1970

Appliction #3579, Jacob Rhoades 100 acres in Friends Cove adjacent to John Fraser and William Brown, Sr. on Cove Creek. John Fraser from North Ireland was one of the first settlers of Bedford County. His son was the first white child born in Bedford County.

In 1784 Robert Moore mentioned above obtained a warrant for 400 acres on Beaver Creek and close to the land of both Alexander and Thomas Brown.

William is shown on the tax records of Dublin Township, Bedford County, PA for the years 1773, 1774, 1776 (renter), 1779, 1780 and in Shirley Township, Huntingdon County, PA for the years 1783, 1784 &1785. (PA Archives 3rd series Vol. 22, page 10) Shirley Township, Huntingdon County had been Dublin Township, Bedford County before 1782.

In 1782 William was paid by the State to supply rations for the Militia. In his letter of April 17, 1782 he states "As you have ordered two companys of Militia to guard the Frontiers of Cumberland County, and a part of these companys must ly in Bedford and the other in Northumberland Counties, I will find them in rations at the same rate they are found in Bedford County, as I have to carry said provisions over three large mountains on Horse Back. I cannot do it for less." See Bedford County in the Revolution, 974.871 M2W p 45 Salt Lake Family History Library.

The Colonial Records of PA, Vol. 13 p 371 indicate William Brown, Esq. appointed to hire 55 pack horses and 10 drivers for expedition into Indian country to rendeyvous at town of Northumberland October 4, 1782.

See Warrent #88 Clearfield Creek, Bedford County (became part of Cambria County) 1784. Son, William Brown, Jr. obtained warrent #89.

Possible the William who was found on the 1790 census of Dublin Twp or Shirley. (son William was supposed to have been killed in an Indian raid in 1789) The son might have still been on the tax list as he might have still owned land at that time, or his wife did.

ALEXANDER BROWN

Results 1–20 of 245,925

Also 80 acres, on September 25, 1835, description: West 1/2 of the South West quarter, Section 14, Township 3-5, Range 4 East. Both purchased at Jeffersonville, IN. Signed by Andrew Jackson.

This may not be the same Henry Miller or he might have purchased other land later as we find on the Plat Map of 1860 Henry has 170 acres in Jackson Township, Washington Co., IN. That appears to be in Township 1 Section 7 ..... South East quarter of Section 7 with a strip of land in Section 8 adjoining.
J. Miller has 133 acres as the South East quarter of Section 8

In 1878 Henry still had 80 acres listed in his estate and Rudolph, his son, had 40 acres .....the west half of the south east quarter minus enough for the steam mill which apparently had belonged to the Shepperd family on both maps. Then Rudolph also owns 80 acres which would be north of the original land in Section 7 .... the north east half of the north east quarter.....that parcel had belonged to Addison Simpson in 1860. Rudolph married his daughter.

Washington Township is listed as Township 1.

Person Note for Alexander Brown Sr.

Alexander was born near Londonderry, North Ireland, about 1759 (see pension application, Nat'l Archives San Bruno.) or the pension application that I have typed below and found on Ancestry.com under pensions. Though the one I have was probably not the first one filed. It does not give his birthplace.

He was indentured to Robert Wallace of Conestoga Township, Lancaster County, PA, Sept. 30, 1772 for a term of five years. Anna Brown, sister, was indentured the same date to Wallace for three years. Both Alex and Anna from Ireland (see list of indentures-Sutro Library, page 28. (the Sutro Library is the State Library of California)

Enlisted in Capt. James Taylors Company, 4th Penn. Batt. from Lancaster County, 1776 (see Dar application #25675). Wounded in battle of Brandywine. (Pension appl. of August 29, 1820) Discharged Morristown, N.J., 1781.

This shows Alexander born before 1755 (we have 1758-59 from pension information but wife in the right age brackett)

Oldest daughter Permelia could be about 21 years old and possibly gone from home by this time.
As could Alexander, Jr. who was born about 1780. Choices we have then for the boys would be John and James and for the girls Anna and Lucy. William (if his birthdate is correct at 1806) would not have been born yet. Doesn't line up perfectly but could be others living with them or some children who died without our knowing who they are. Floyd mentions that there are 4 boys and 3 girls, but I believe that there are 4 boys and 2 girls listed as the other "girl" is no doubt his wife. She is too old to be Permelia. According to this there would be 5 males, and 3 females in the house.

1814 Living Bedford County, Dublin Twp., Tax Records Alex age 55, occu. mason (Penn Archives 3rd series Vol. 3 page 119)
1820 Census, Franklin County, Peters Twp., Page 106 (1 son William 10-16)
Interestingly enough I find that the 1820 census is probably Alexander Brown Jr. and not Sr.
It is as follows:
1820 Census of Peters, Franklin, PA.....Alexander Brown
1 male 10 thru 15.....1805-1810
1 male 26 thru 44.....1776-1794 (this indicates a younger couple than Alexander, Sr.)
1 female 26 thru 44.....1776-1794
1 colored male under 14.....
1 colored male 26 thru 44.....
1 colored Female 16 thru 44..... All of these are free-colored so not slaves

So this may be the home of Alexander, Sr., but at this time it appears that Alexander, Jr. and Henry A. are living there with another family. And since the father was listed as a stone mason, it is very possible that Alexander, Jr. also went along with this trade.

Along with this we find that in 1810 at this same address we find Alexander as the head of house. Can't tell if it is Alexander Sr. or Jr. The boxes are blank on the image except at the very end and it shows the number 3. So the interpretation given by the person translating this for ancestry.com just gives 3 persons, no ages, or sexes. So could this mean that Alexander, Jr. and his family are there? Or is the colored family? Or even 3 males doing the masonery work? It is hard to be sure, but we do not find Alexander Jr. on any other census in 1810 unless he is included in the one that belongs to his father. If his birth is correct at 1780, Alexander Brown Jr. would be 30 years old.

1823, death of Alexander Brown Sr., from his pension report. (July of 1823)
Probate is given per Deb Eidson as follows:
Thanks for the updates. The book Floyd has at ACPL was dated 1994. He had made notes and dated it June 7, 1994. The 1995 version you sent does have more info to work with.

This morning I decided to look at the probate records in Franklin Co., PA. I found Alexander Sr.'s Letter of Administration dated 15 Oct 1823, and the inventory of his estate dated 13 Nov 1823 with the appointed administrator James McDowell. Estate #1995.

There was no record of a will. I'm not sure yet where to find the inventory list and to see how it was distributed.

Some of the above is from the book written by Floyd Brown, of California, and he has verification of most of these facts. I contacted Floyd about 1998 and the last time I tried to reach him, 2001, received no answer. Adam Barrone may know if something happened to him. (In checking with Adam, he has no information on what happened to Floyd Brown) In connection with this we find that in 1810 we also find one Alexander Brown at this same address with 3 people listed but there is nothing on the image that tells us even what age categories they are in. Every square is blank except the last one that gives the number 3. His name, and the #3. He and his wife and perhaps Henry A. could have been living there. Or it is possible that the 3 were the colored family who was taking care of the place for them. Hard to make any judgment on this. It doesn't say 3 males or mixed. But we do not find Alexander, Jr. in any other location in 1810 unless he is one of the males at home with his father.

Floyd Brown also has a possible wife by the name of Anna Horton possibly married about 1776.
If so then Jane might be his second wife so not sure if she is the mother of all of the children.

His birthdate and birthplace may come from the DAR application. If so, it is only as good as the person applying probably.

.....

I find several Alexanders in the 1810 census.

Alexander of Bedford Co., Dublin Township.....045.....Floyd's choice
Alexander of Franklin Co., Antrim Township.....130
Alexander of Franklin Co., Peters Township.....141
Several others who do not seem to be close.
One might be Alexander, Jr.

In 1820 we find:

Alexander of Cambria, Conemaugh Twp.....#182
Alexander of Franklin, Peters Township.....#106
Alexander of Franklin, Peters Township.....#107
Alexander of Franklin, Washington Township.....#103

in 1830 we find:

Alexander of Franklin, Greene Township.....#197
1 male 5 to 10
1 male 40 to 50
1 female under 5
1 female 10 to 15
2 females 40 to 50 .....would be the age of Alexander, Jr. Floyd B. says he was in Cambria at this time. (because of township/county line changes)

Alexander of Franklin, Peters Township.....#369
Alexander of Cambria, Jackson Township.....#190
Henry of Somerset, Jenner Township.....#120
Henry of Franklin, Chambersburg..... #259

There is no one of the Brown family working this place.
Have 3 free black slaves. One man and a woman and a small female.
Might it have belonged to our Henry A. and he was off in Somerset Co.???

In 1840 we find:

A lot of Alexanders but none in our above counties and places.
Henry is in Somerset, Jenner Township.....#112
There is still one in Cambria, Johnstown.....#021

.....

Also interesting to note that in 1751 there was an Alexander Brown on the Tax Lists in Peters Township, in what was Franklin County. We can wonder then if William did indeed come from Ireland and is the father of Alexander. Possible this 1751 Alexander is an uncle who made the trip earlier. Then again might be no relationship. Also in the 1751 list of Browns, we find Samuel, Widow Brown, George and James Brown. James was called a Freeman. Seems to be a den of Browns there so may be somewhere in the family.

.....

Following are excerpts from the pension papers found at the National Archives in Washington D.C. on Alexander Brown in the Revolutionary War:

Page 515 ..... dated 1819 ..... District of Pennsylvania

On this seventh day of January, 1819, before me, the subscriber, one of the Judges of the County of Franklin, for the said district, personally appeared ALEXANDER BROWN, aged 60 years, resident in Peters Township in the said district, who being by me first duly sworn, according to law, doth, on his oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the provision made by the late Act of Congress, entitled, "An Act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War": That he, the said ALEXANDER BROWN, enlisted for the term of one year on the _____ day of February in the year one thousand seven hundred and 76 in Lancaster County in the state of Pennsylvania in the company commanded by Captain James Taylor of the Regiment commanded by Colonel Wayne in the line of the State of Pennsylvania on the Continental Establishment: that he continued to serve in the said corps, or in the service of the United States, until 1780, when he was discharged from service in Morristown, state of Pennsylvania (crossed out and replaced with Jersey State); that he was in the battles of Brandywine, Paoli, Germantown, Monmouth, Stone Point and North River, and that he is reduced of circumstances, and stands in need of the assistance of his country for support; and that he has no other evidence now in his power of his said services.

It is interesting that the Judge who signs this is named Archibald Bard. He is apparently a wealthy land owner and a neighbor of Alexander's as found on the tax lists. Alexander Brown is living in a log house that is owned by Richard Bard who may be a son of Archibald and next to the Archibald Bard property.

Paper 2 ..... dated August 29, 1820

On this twenty ninth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, personally appeared in open court being a Court of Record by the Constitution and _____ of Pennsylvania in and for said county, ALEXANDER BROWN, aged 62 years, residing in Peters Township in said county, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath declare that he served in the Revolutionary War as following, in Captain James Taylor's Company in the 4th Regiment commanded by Col. A. Wayne in the Pennsylvania line in the year 1776 and in Capt. Thomas Boude's Company in the 5th Regiment commanded by Col. Johnston in the said line in the year 1777-78-79 and 80. He was wounded in the Battle of Brandywine of which he made declaration on the 11th day of January 1819 and received Certificate of Pension __5839 and I do solemnly swear that I was a resident citizen of the United States on the 18th day of March eighteen hundred and eighteen and there I have not since that time, by gifts, sale, or in any manner disposed of my property or securities, contracts, or debts due to me; nor have I any income other than what is contained in the schedule hereto annexed and by me subscribed -- I receive of the State of Pennsylvania a pension of forty dollars a year in consequence of a wound I received in the Revolutionary War.

I am also possessed of the following property viz: One cow, two screw augers, one spinning wheel, one table, one Bible and four other books, one churn, two buckets, one chair, two sprouting hoes, one iron wedge, two old barrels, two pots, one small pair of stillyards, one old ax, one old hand saw.

My family living with me consist of my wife, Jane Brown, aged 61 years and my son William Brown, aged fourteen years. My occupation is stone mason but I am rendered almost incapable of following it by rheumatic pains and infirmities of old age.
_____, debts amount to about one hundred forty three dollars.

Alexander Brown, signed by his mark, an X

The above gives us a glimpse into the life of Alexander Brown. We know that he was indentured in 1772 for 5 years. However he either joined in the militia before his indenture was over, or when it was over, as he joined the army February 14, 1776 and served then until 1780.

We see that he was a stone mason.

His wife's name at this time was "Jane" who was a year younger than he is.
He had a son by the name of William who was 14 in 1820, making his birthyear 1806.
In 1819 and 1820 he was living in Peters Township, Franklin Co., PA
He had been receiving a pension of $40 because of his service
He had been wounded at the Battle of Brandywine
He had served in the army for 4 years.
He was unable to continue with his work as a stone mason
We know by other pension papers that he died July 1, 1823 so only a couple years after this.

From letters of those descentants wishing to join the DAR, we see a couple other facts ..... if indeed we have the right Alexander Brown and the right descendants.

That he had an elder daughter by the name of Permelia who married a Howard. She was born in 1779.
That his marriage to his wife was in 1778 which would have meant that it was during his service in the war.
The marriage was to have taken place in Somers, Tolland, CT and if so his Regiment may have served there for a time.
He either served with or had friends or neighbors named Daniel Bloom and Charles Gipper as they witnessed to the fact that Alexander was indeed a solder in the Rev. War. So we may have a good look at this man's life, which was apparently not easy. Hard to understand then just what happened to his land at Clearfield Creek and why he was so "poor" at the end of his life.

It is possible that this man is a negro as I find after his name on this census that is looks like Nego is written. Also we find that Alexander Bard is also just a few names away from Alexander. Is it possible that the Alexander at Peters is the negro? This is the first time I have seen that, except that in the one census I saw that there were 3 whites and 3 free coloreds living there but the census was under Alexander Brown who was white. So not sure. Maybe I misread the writing on what looked like Nego. Bard has esquire after his name. Most names have nothing at all after their names.

Alexander Brown
Residence Year: 1828
Residence Place: Peters, Franklin, Pennsylvania
Also looks like it says Negro after his name in 1828. He is a laborer and a man.

Alexander Brown
Residence Year: 1842
Residence Place: Green, Franklin, Pennsylvania
Here there is no other information except that Alexander is a laborer.

In the 1830 census for Peters, Franklin, PA Alexander Brown has his name there, but there are no spaces filled in all across the page.....unless he is colored.

I don't have much on the Klinkers in my FTM or have any military records/info. I've never had time to put them all in there. With working on the school history the past 10 years, there are many things that I never got done and probably won't.

My dad enlisted in Indianapolis on 7 Oct 1943. His ship was the USS Dixie. I know that he was in Shanghai, China area. He was honorably discharged on 25 Mar 1946 at the US Naval Personnel Separation Center in Great Lakes, Illinois as a Metalsmith Third Class.

Major's ship was the USS Perkins - got that off of Ancestry. You might be able to find enough on Ancestry to fill in your stories.

Darrell was in Germany and retired as a Lt. Colonel. Linda Borton would probably have all the info on Darrell.

So many projects - so little time.

Person Note for John Brown

From brother Alexander's notes we find these other family warrants:

Obtained land warrant #84 on Clearfield Creek, Bedford County, PA. Later to become part of Cambria County. 400 acres on both sides of the creek. July 1, 1784. (Land applications of Bedford County., film #0924950) Also warrents #80 James Brown; #81Mary Brown Sen.; #89 William Brown, Jr.; #88 Elizabeth Brown; #90 John Brown; #98 Thomas Brown 400 acres above and adjoining land of Alexander Brown. All on Clearfield Creek.

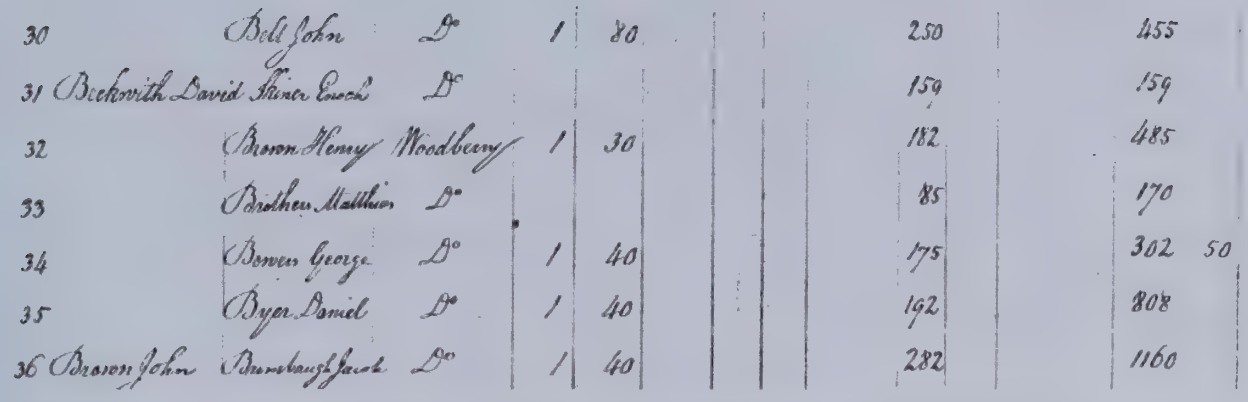
From Floyd Brown, we have these John Browns listed in the census:

1800.....John Brown.....age 45 and over
1810.....John Brown.....age 45 and over
1820.....John Brown.....age 45 and over

Cannot be sure without more information if this is this John or not. If it is, then his birthdate of 1759 may not be correct.

.....

Possible the John who was found on the 1788 tax list for Frankstown.....as a non-resident.



30		Bell John	Do	1	80			250	455
31	Beckwith David	Stiner Enoch	Do					159	159
32		Brown Henry	Woodbury	1	30			182	485
33		Brothen Matthias	Do					85	170
34		Bowen George	Do	1	40			175	302	50
35		Byer Daniel	Do	1	40			192	808
36	Brown John	Bumbaugh Jacob	Do	1	40			282	1160

In 1798 there were about 6 John Brown's listed in Woodbury. Did he have more than one piece of property? Or were there that many John Browns living there.

Septennial Census

Person Note for Rudolph Miller Sr.

Possible 1840 Census for Rudolph: Washington County, Mari. Twp .....#270.

It would appear that the family came from Germany between 1835 and 1841 when grandson Jacob was reported to have been born in Washington County. Both Rudolph, Jr. and Julia were reported to have been born in Germany. Julia born 1835. (Rudolph, Julia, and Jacob children of Henry and Elizabeth)

.....

Handwritten family history says that the great grandparents were born in West Phalia, Germany, Lengrich and came to Indiana in 1830. They brought with them 2 sons, Henry and Jacob, and 2 girls. Probably Catherine and Elizabeth. All came from Germany. The account says the girls were twins, but the census reports don't seem to agree.

.....

1850 Census of Jackson Twp., Washington Co., IN (later may be Howard Twp.)

Rudolph Miller.....68.....born Germany.....Farmer.....1782
Elizabeth Miller.....64.....born Germany.....1784
Elizabeth Miller.....41.....born Germany.....1809
Catherine Miller.....38.....born Germany.....1812
Jacob Miller.....35.....born Germany.....Farmer.....1815

.....

1860 Census of Washington County, IN

It would seem that perhaps Rudolph's name might have been John Rudolph.....at least the 1860 census seems to show that their family was found under family #220

John R. Miller.....80.....born Germany.....1780
Elizabeth Miller.....75.....born Germany.....1785
Catherine.....51.....born Germany.....1809

John R. was living right next to Jacob and Sophia so assume he was called by either Rudolph or John.

Township Pages

For the names of the Boroughs and Towns and Cities please see these pages. You may also wish to view our Gazetteer or Place Name Locator.

Note: We are in need of volunteers to host our township pages. If you would like to help us build this website, and can make a web page, please consider hosting one of our adoptable townships! For help and more information, contact Carol Hepburn! Requirements: You need to know how to make a web page and upload it to the internet. Your interest in the township is key -- and your willingness to add more materials about the township is important. But most of all, this should be something "fun" for you to do!

1776 Tax assessment of those living in Dublin Township, then in Bedford Co.

Note: This image was scanned from a photocopy of the original 1776 tax assessment for Dublin, within Bedford County. The originals of the tax assessment returns were stored, for many years, in Vault #1 in the basement of the Bedford County Court House. The webmaster of this site was given permission by the officials of the Bedford County Court system to photocopy the original returns in the 1980s. A year or two after the original returns were photocopied, a pipe burst in the vault in which the returns were stored, causing water damage to many records, and the original tax assessment returns were subsequently transferred to the Pioneer Historical Society of Bedford County for storage.

DUBLIN.

The Second Oldest Township in Fulton county - Organization in 1767 - Its Original Boundaries - Taxables in 1767 - John Burd's Property in 1770 - Tax-List of 1773 - The Historic Spots, Burnt Cabins and Fort Lyttleton - the Two Villages Today - Industries - Personal Mention of Prominent Citizens and Old Residents - The Methodist Church - Fort Lyttleton I.O.O.F. Lodge - The Oldest in Fulton County.

DUBLIN is, next to Ayr, the oldest township in Fulton county. It was created a township of Cumberland county at the October sessions of court, 1767. Its boundaries are thus indefinitely described: "Dublin. Bounded by Air and Fannet on the one side, and Colraine and Barre townships, on the top of Sidling Hill, on the other side. John Ramsey,* constable."

At the time Bedford county was formed the bounds of Dublin township were left "as fixed by the Cumberland county court." On the assessment list for 1767, among the taxables of Dublin township, appear the names of the following persons, who probably resided within the present limits of Fulton county

We do not find that William Brown was there yet in 1773. If Alexander was indentured in 1772 then it is possible that they did not come that far that soon. Perhaps they were still in Lancaster Co. at that time.

Clearfield Creek is a 73.4-mile-long (118.1 km)[1] tributary of the West Branch Susquehanna River in Cambria and Clearfield counties, Pennsylvania, in the United States.

Clearfield Creek joins the West Branch Susquehanna River near the community of Clearfield.

CHAPTER XIV

The Disinherited

Signs and symbols, carved in the rocks by the hands of our ancestors, are uncertain accounts of the lives they led. The most expert archaeologists disagree as to their exact meanings.

Written words bind the past to the present as no other medium can.

Unfortunately the early settlers of Somerset County were spare to the point of parsimony in their use of the quill and inkpot.

Harmon Husband is the one exception. So it is to him that we look for the most intimate accounts of the every day lives of the men and women who came into the virgin wilderness to carve out a new civilization; and it was a new civilization. The seaboard settlements were merely an expansion of the inflexible English design, whereas the settlements west of the Alleghenies were new experiments in empire building.

Harmon Husband, riding horse back into the Glades in 1771 was farther removed from the Atlantic settlements than the sons of Penn were from the powers beyond the sea. In common with the hunters and a few settlers of the Glades, Husband now belonged to that small band of pioneers who had snapped the last tie that bound them to the traditions of the ages—in short he belonged to the disinherited.

Approaching the plume of smoke that arose from the clearing near the headwater of Stony Creek, Husband was hailed in broken English with:

"Welcome, broder, where you come?"

Relieved at finding neither French, English nor Indians at his first sign of human habitation in the mountain country Husband replied:

"From Hagerstown."

"And where you will go in the bush?"

Husband hesitated. Swiftly, expertly, with an eye trained to exploring details he saw the cabin in the clearing; the burning brush piles near the forest's edge from which a number of boys and girls of various ages darted toward the shelter of the cabin like startled partridges. The dog that heralded his approach now stood by with bristling hackles. The settler with his gnarled hands still grasping the plow handles nodded to a sixteen year old boy to unyoke the team of oxen. Not waiting for Husband's reply the settler again turned to the horseman and said:

"Come along; you be hungry, you be tired."

G9Snl

Thus was the greeting of Harmon Husband to the Stony Creek Glades by Philip Wagerline and his family in the late evening of June 5th, 1771.

After a night's rest under the Wagerline's roof, Husband explained during the course of a breakfast of venison, boiled rye, and boiled potatoes, his mission into the wilderness. His explanations, however, were recited with some reservations.

He had come from Hagerstown, his name was Toscape Death, and he was looking for an old friend named Isaac Cox.

In turn Philip Wagerline informed Husband of the Stony Creek Glades. Wagerline's nearest neighbor was five or six miles away, and there were other settlers farther off in the woods. There were also some hunters and trappers with seasonable abodes.

Remaining with Wagerline throughout the day, Husband started in search for Isaac Cox the following morning.

As his horse, Old Tom, picked his way through the lush ferns of the forest's shade Husband reflected on the information that was withheld from Wagerline.

Before coming to the Glades Husband had spent his early boyhood days in Chester County, Pennsylvania and Cecil County, Maryland. As a young man he went to the province of North Carolina, where he gained property, position, and influence. In the role of a reformer he was instrumental in marshalling the forces of the common people in that province. He called them the Regulators or Sons of Liberty.

The pivotal issue was taxes.

Tryon, the provincial governor of North Carolina, was well versed in the well known, universal, and timeless game of subtraction and division; that is, taxing his subjects to the utmost to maintain himself and his small group of satellites in royal style. But Tryon made the fatal mistake, as many have before and since, of over-adjusting the thumbscrews of taxation. The result was rebellion, climaxed by the Battle of Alamance—the first battle of the American Revolution which was fought May 16, 1771.

At the sound of the first clash of battle, Harmon Husband, the leader of the Sons of Liberty, jumped on his horse and fled.

In fairness to Husband, who was a Quaker, indoctrinated with principles which would not allow him to fight, he had the courage of his convictions, and when forced to display these inner truths, there was no show of hypocrisy. Veterans of the Battle of Alamance grant that: "Charity must stretch her mantle to cover the delinquency of the leader of the Regulators."

Tryon, the Great Wolf of North Carolina, was not so generous; proclaiming on the 9th day of June, 1771 that: "Whereas, Harmon Husband, (and others) are outlawed and liable to be shot by any person whatever, I do therefore, proclaim that they are to be punished for the Traitorous and Rebellious crimes they have committed, issue this my proclamation thereby offering a reward of 100 pounds sterling, and 1000 acres of land to any person or persons who will take dead or alive and bring into mine or General Waddell's camp either or each of the above-named outlaws."

On the same June day that Tryon was scrawling out this vitriolic message to the people of North Carolina, Harmon Husband's faithful Old Tom had carried him to a hunter's cabin which was located almost within the present limits of the Borough of Somerset.

Finding the owner of the cabin absent Husband made himself at home, and remarks:

"The first and most agreeable sight was a half-dozen of venison hams that were suspended from the ridge pole of the roof."

When the owner of the cabin, William Sparks, returned he informed Husband that Isaac Cox's camp was a short distance away.

"What strange whim is it that has brought you out here into the backwoods?" asked Cox, after the greeting of handshakes and backslapping. "You would never take part in our hunting and sporting expeditions in the settlements. Now I suppose you are going to turn regular hunter."

"No," replied Husband, "I have as little inclination for hunting as I ever had."

Sparks, leaning on the long barrel of his flintlock, said in utter astonishment, "You come out here into the wilderness and no gun! Why man, you're a fool to travel, settle, and live in the wilderness and have no gun. Why, man, you're crazy!"

Husband explained in more detail his urgent mission into the woods, adding that henceforth he would be known as Toscape Death.

Sparks frowned on the curious nom de plume as being too formal.

Cox suggested that they use the name, Quaker—and to the end of his days Husband was known to many as the old Quaker.

There is a monument at Hillsboro, North Carolina to twelve of Harmon Husband's compatriots who were hanged by the neck until they were dead by the British Governor on June 19, 1771, or about the same time that Husband was being reborn and rechristened in the cool shade of a Somerset County maple grove.

Thus Husband was installed as a member of the band of hunters of Cox's Creek Glades in the month of June, 1771. This region was so named because the waters flowed in an opposite direction from Stony Creek, and Isaac Cox had established an early hunting camp near the headwaters of the stream which is named for him.

The names of the hunters in this community were: Isaac Cox, William Sparks, David Wright, A. Wright, S. Wright, Aquilla White, John Penrod, Sr., John Penrod, Jr., John Vansel, Wilson, Wills, Bucher, Pursley and Rhodes.

G9S n1

Husband, having thus far Escaped Death, "took up my abode for the present with Cox, but after looking around for some days, having made up my mind to remain at least until the next spring, that I might be better able to form a just and proper opinion of all the circumstances connected with the bringing out of a family into the wilderness and sustaining them during the winter time, I concluded to raise myself a cabin near my host."

Reassured by the following summer that he had made a wise choice in selecting a site for a settlement, Husband purchased claims from the hunters and brought his wife and family to his new home in the autumn of 1772.

In mental stature Harmon Husband stood head and shoulders above the very early pioneers of Somerset County. He had his finger on the throbbing pulse of colonial affairs of the day, and through Benjamin Franklin, Jefferson, and their contemporaries, he kept abreast of the great scientific discoveries of the age. With the mental gap that yawned between Husband and his jovial hunting companions it is no surprise to know that they called him the Queer Old Quaker.

But Husband's searching mind left an imprint that is indelible on the early history of Somerset County, for it was here that he was to create a haven for the disinherited.

A few of the hunters laid aside their long rifles to take up plow handles, stake out claims, and bring wives to the Somerset Settlement. Among them were: William Sparks, John Vansel, John Penrod.

Other settlers soon arriving on the scene were: Ulrich Bruner, Henry Bruner, George Bruner, Richard Brown, Richard Wells, Michael Huff and John Ferguson.

Among the settlers who came in 1774 and 1775 were: Christian Ankeny, Peter Ankeny, Jacob Barnhart, Peter Barnhart, John Rowley, James Black, George Barron, Nicholas Barron, Young, Kifer, and Doom.

CHAPTER XV

Revolution

South of the line that forms the lower boundaries of Addison, Elklick, Greenville, and Southampton townships it is conceded that the Battle of Alamance was the first battle of the American Revolution with Harmon Husband as the leader of organized resistance to the British Crown.

North of the Mason and Dixon line the poet tells us that it was at Concord where the "shot heard round the world" was first fired on the 19th of April, 1775.

Both have ample proof for their opinions, while all agree that frontier Americans held high the torch of Liberty, and with their squirrel rifles, defended that light to their death.

The pioneers of Somerset County (called Bedford County at the time) were no exceptions. Under the command of Captain Richard Brown, with James Francis Moore as first lieutenant, men from the region of the Turkeyfoot, Cox's Creek Glades, Stony Creek Glades, and along the Forbes Road shouldered their flintlocks and joined Washington's forces.

Few returned. The account they gave of themselves is a saga in itself.

On the home front there was far more excitement than in the year of 1763 when Pontiac let loose his savage wrath. The simple reason for this was that there were many more settlers here during Revolutionary days, and the battle lines were drawn on both sides of the mountains.

The ablest fighters had emptied the buck horn racks of the best rifles, and had marched eastward to meet the Red Coats, leaving the older men and boys with worn and rattling flintlocks to guard their cabins and families against Indian raids from the west.

With the British holding the western military forts it was their strategy to arm the Indians with long rifles, scalping knives, and fire water, and send them to the frontier settlements with murderous intent.

The Indians, aided by a few renegade whites, such as the Girtys, cut a staggering red swath through the mountain clearings.

Express riders, the spearhead of civilian defense, galloping from the Forbes Road to the Cox's Creek Glades and Brothers Valley shouted to the panic stricken settlers:

"James Wells from Jenner Fort shot by the Indians! Flee for your lives!" (Autumn of 1776)

Hi Betty,

I have attached the first 2 pages of Floyd's book. Is this the same book you have? I found some things that didn't add up. He shows that Alexander Jr. and Henry A. were brothers.

The whole book was from his FTM. He didn't carry on with #7, 8, and 10.

I messed around some looking for some wills. Sure would be nice to have Alexander Sr. and Jr.'s wills. No luck. I listed some that I did find on FamilySearch. The Pennsylvania will books were just added in July. Don't know if any of these Browns fit in the picture or not.

I also found a gal on Ancestry that has a lot of Browns. Don't know how much she has researched or just used info from other trees. She lives nearby and has taken a lot of photos in the cemeteries around the area.

Lots of missing pieces with our Browns which may never be found. But I'm having fun trying to find at least one.

Also I was curious as to why James and Mary were not on the 1860 census which was taken on 16 Jul 1860 as they were both still living in Allen Co. and died a month apart in Sept-Oct.

Always more questions than answers.

That's about I have for now.

First Generation

1 William BROWN, born abt 1720 in Ulster, North Ireland; died bef 1784 in Bedford, Penn..
See Land application #1970 William Brown Sr. 200 acres in Friends Cove on the run (stream) bounded easterly by Robert Moore's land and on west by Jacob Roads. 25 Nov 1766.
Also see application #3579 Jacob Rhoades 100 acres in Friends Cove adjacent to John Fraser & William Brown Sr. on Cove Creek.
John Fraser from North Ireland was one of the first settlers of Bedford Co. His son was the first white child born in Bedford Co.

William BROWN married (1) Elizabeth (BROWN). Elizabeth, born abt 1725; died aft 1810 in Penn..

Second Generation

3 Alexander BROWN Sr., born abt 1759 in Penn.; died bef 1820 in Dublin Twp., Bedford, Penn..
I am not yet sure that this Alexander is the father of our Henry A. Brown. However, the preponderance of evidence indicates this is correct. By a process of elimination I have found no other Brown in Bedford,Somerset or Cambria Counties who would fit. Bedford is the parent County of both Somerset and Cambria.I have studied all Census, Vital Records, and land records of these Counties as well as the surounding Counties. See Warrent #84 1784 Clearfield Creek Bedford Co.(became Cambria Co). 1790 Census Bedford Co. 1800 Census Bedford Co. 1810 Census Dublin Twp. Bedford Co.(1 son under 10, Henry born 1805). The census was taken with the April 1 date for adding children. Anyone before April 1 would be added to the list. My birthdate of May 18, 1930, was too late for me to be added in this home. Note that the next door neighbor was the Denzel family, raymond, Mildred, and Richard. I have a picture of "Dickie" Denzel standing beside a stuffed pony somewhere. Mom always told me that was "Dickie" Denzel and though I really don't remember him, I know him from his picture.

This family genealogy shows a Hugh Brown as father of Alexander who m. Polly & they had Henry A. They seem more centered in Lancaster but needs to be checked. Why would our Henry A. go all the way to Lancaster to marry Mary Hoffman when both were living in Somerset Co?

This whole search started with finding a picture of my father under Search all Records, Guy Brown. Under the documents I found his picture listed under various family tree families. One being the Rhodes family of Spencerville. Possible connection might be the Beam or Beams family. The Hoffman family has a Beams and there is a prominent Beams family in Spencerville, of which Esther Fitch had several photos because she was a SS teacher of Esther's. Just where the Beams family may have fitted into the Brown family, I have no idea at the present time. More info needed.

BARRONE/LUDE

ELMER BINO BARRONE was born July 20, 1910 in Bergville, Minnesota to AMOS STEWART and ADA JANE BARNHART BARRONE. AMOS (1869-1921), a native of Allen County, was born to MICHAEL and POLLY (BROWN) BARRONE, pioneers who settled in Monroe Township, Allen County, in the 1840's. After brief stays in Paulding County, Ohio and Calhoun County, Michigan, Amos and family homesteaded in Alvwood Township, Itasca County, Minnesota, starting in 1903, and moved to Oneida County, Wisconsin by 1920. After Elmer's mother died in 1926, he and his brothers OTHA and CLYDE BARRONE, were living in Fort Wayne. ELIZA BELLE had been adopted by Elizabeth Baulky in Fort Wayne and renamed ANNABELLE.

EDITH AMELIA LUDE (born 1921) came to Fort Wayne with her family about 1942. Her family included siblings JOHN, ROSEMARY, JAMES, THEODORE, and LEONARD LUDE, Grandmother AMELIA FEISLEY LUDE and parents ROBERT and ALDINE GERBER LUDE. They settled on Greenview Avenue, Rural Route 8. The Ludes had been farmers at Craigville, Indiana. The Lude family owned and operated an ice cream parlor, Frosty's, at 101 West Williams in the early 1950's. ROBERT LUDE was an employee of Moellering Mills. EDITH had been a restaurant cook at the Alpine Haus where Annabelle Barrone McCurdy was a waitress. Annabelle introduced Edith to her brother, Elmer. Edith and Elmer were married April 8, 1944 at Fort Wayne. They purchased their Greenview home from Edith's grandmother. This home was next to the Robert Lude family home.

Elmer and Edith Barrone had 3 children

DAISY, born 1945
DENNIS, born 1949
RANDALL, born 1966, died 1968

Elmer was an employee of Bowser, Inc., and Systems Engineering and Sales Company. He died in 1977.

Daisy married BOBBY THOMPSON, an Alabama native. Their first three children, DARRELL, CHERYL, and GREGORY, were born in Fort Wayne. Their fourth child, JASON, was born at Norfolk, VA. Daisy, Cheryl, and Jason now live in Fort Worth, Texas. Darrell and Gregory reside in California and Alabama respectively.

Dennis, a 1968 Elmhurst High School graduate married BEVERLY CROTHERS, daughter of Harry and Edna Sutton Crothers, in 1970 at the West Creighton Avenue Christian Church. Beverly was a 1967 graduate of Central High School. Dennis is a 35-year employee of Fort Wayne Newspapers. Their children are twins, ADAM and CARLA (born 1978) and SAMUEL, born 1985.

ADAM, an IPFW graduate, married MYSTI SCHAMMERT, a Hobart, Indiana, native at First Christian Church in 2001. He, a former Fort Wayne Community Schools teacher, is employed by the Allen County Public Library Foundation. Their son, CALEB, was born in 2002 in Fort Wayne.

CARLA, wife of Colleaf Andrews, is a certified nursing assistant who provide in-home care for the Lutheran Health Network. She and Colleaf were married in 2004 in Reno, Nevada. Carla's daughter, LeeAnna Washington, was born in 1996 in Fort Wayne.

SAMUEL is a computer science student at IPFW
